

CONDITIONS GOOD FOR SPUDS IN 1917

By A. W. Kalbus, State Dept.
Agriculture.
The weather conditions in Wisconsin are favorable for the production of potatoes, the result being that the estimated average yield per acre is about 100 bushels as compared with an average for a ten year period of one hundred and two bushels. The falling off in production is naturally followed by a great increase in price.
The acreage devoted to the growing of potatoes in 1917, the scarcity and price of seed must be considered. The growers of certified seed potatoes are almost prohibitive in price and it is taken into consideration that naturally follows that the acreage devoted to the commercial crop will be decreased.
On the other hand many small growers will be planted in and near cities. This will have the tendency to lessen the decrease in acreage. It is also a well known fact that very low production and abnormally high prices are incentives for larger acreage of the same crops the following year. This factor will weigh heavily against the high price of potatoes in the whole, the acreage of potatoes coming year will be but a very slight decrease below the average.
The soils went into winter cover with a fair supply of moisture and an early start, followed by a very favorable winter. If the spring is normal, the soil conditions should be very favorable for a good production. The condition of potatoes in regard to diseases was above normal last year, which should also be favorable for a good crop the coming year.

STOCK MORTALITY SERIOUS IN STATE

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Milwaukee, Wis., March 27.—An unusual mortality in stock raising districts of Wisconsin threatens to cut short the population for this season and probably next year.
Veterinarians here today declared the mortality—due to heavy snows and severe cold—probably will mount to a surprising figure when census reports are made. Accurate figures are now available.
An effort is being made to re-stock this spring and hundreds of head of cattle will be moving for breeding this week. However the unusual high prices, increased cost of pasturing and transportation costs are having the effect on holding down this movement. Cattle agents and buyers have been active in central counties for several weeks.

Reduced Electric Rates

Have the approval of the Railroad Commission of Wisconsin. This body of experts, after careful examination, concede that the new rates will result in an actual saving to our consumers. Their Letter Follows:

Madison, Wisconsin, March 26th, 1917.

Mr. P. H. Korst, Sec'y. and Mgr.,
Janesville Electric Company,
Janesville, Wisconsin.

Dear Sir:—

In approving your proposed schedule of electric rates, we find from the data which you submitted to us, that it will result in a general reduction of rates to consumers.

The type of schedule which you propose to put into effect is in use in a number of cities in this state, and, so far as we can learn, seems to be satisfactory to the public. This new schedule of rates is a decided improvement over the one which has been in effect in Janesville up to this time.

Yours very truly,

RAILROAD COMMISSION OF WISCONSIN,
HENRY R. TRUMBOWER,
COMMISSIONER.

The rates on electricity have been voluntarily lowered, in the face of constantly soaring costs in every thing else, to increase our business. We are determined that no obstacle shall stand between us and the house not wired for electricity. We have brought electricity down within the reach of all and we are prepared to go still farther, that is, wire your house for equally reasonable prices. There is then no reason why you should not begin to use electricity today. Call or phone us at once for prices.

THE TIME IS NOW

WEATHER FORECAST.

THE SCHOOL SURVEY.

Survey of the Janesville schools has begun. The "surveyors," as one young lady reported at home, have arrived and are well started in their work and are reluctant to talk as yet. In fact should not be urged to say there are many and diverse questions and problems for them to confront and solve before their final report is made. They will be ready enough to meet citizens when they have the opportunity of seeing for themselves, first hand, what conditions actually are.

They are apparently going about their work thoroughly and systematically and the concrete results when those assigned to the various branches of the survey work are ready to report, will mean the solution of a serious problem at the present time. The Janesville school building, public known as the "old school," is inadequate for the needs of the present generation, but how to accomplish the best results is a question that the survey will solve for us in a manner that will be most satisfactory.

The work by them is only half begun and upon which are to be elected at the coming election, will rest the burden of the task. These four men hold office for two years and during that period the bulk of the work must be done. The school building, which is now in process of reconstruction and at least partially completed, so they will have important work to do going to be an easy task. It is not going to be an easy task that confronts this incoming school board, but it is safe to say that the men who are seeking election are all in hearty accord with the plans suggested that Janesville shall have the best school system and the best school buildings of any city in the state. That the survey will make many suggestions to be expected; that these suggestions and recommendations will be for the best interests of the schools is most certain, and consequently the final result will be watched with interest.

A HARD TASK. There has been so much of this "watchful waiting" doctrine. Too much of the policy of "turn your other cheek" it slipped on one side. The meekness taught by Job when he suffered for his sins, that it will take some really radical action to wake this nation up to the true responsibility of the actual European situation. True, congress has been called in extraordinary session. True, some of our merchant ships have been armed and equipped with guns and gunners to protect American trade on the high seas, but the fact remains that some two hundred Americans have lost their lives while seeking to earn an honest living, through the ruthless warfare of a foreign power.

Then the government at Washington claims to have evidence of plots to destroy the only private business concern in the world that could be depended upon by the nose like a fat sow at a stock exhibit, but one in which at least half of the members belong to an opposite political party than the administration with a possibility of having the control of the lower house.

Whether they will enact time in the history of the nation remains to be seen. They represent many constituencies and these people who elected them are of diverse opinions owing to the fact the dilatory tactics of the federal government has been such during the past three years that there has been no real confidence in it at this time.

It is to be hoped, however, for the sake of national honor, that a bold, united front be presented to the world and there be no "slinkers" in congress when the time comes for a vote on the question of the United States against the world. "United we stand, divided we fall."

FINISH THE WORK.

The good work started last Thursday when the assembly ordered to enactment the referendum measure, must be continued. Give the voters of the state the right to decide for themselves whether they want liquor domination or not in state affairs. The lobby maintained has succeeded in having measure after measure passed that has meant dollars in the pockets of the liquor element and an equal amount out of the pockets of the taxpayer. Play fifty-fifty at least and do not seek to throttle the wishes of the people all the time. Be square and give the taxpayers and the voters an opportunity to decide for themselves whether they want liquor and whether they want state funds and the sale of liquor in Wisconsin after July 1, 1920, or not. It is to be hoped the assembly passes the bill and the senate quickly enacts it into a law, only awaiting the governor's signature.

SPRING CLEANING.

Talking of spring cleaning, watch the streets of the downtown district and note the improvement that is being made as rapidly as possible. Then go out through the yards and discover the work that is being done there. Then make your report to the city hall. Right now the city could work every unemployed person in Janesville to advantage in completing the spring clean-up in due time. Gutters, choked since last fall, streets that have an accumulation of dirt and refuse that should be taken away, all await the spring rains to create conditions that will not give a good impression to the average visitor of the man in which Janesville cares for its highways. It is up to the property owner to do some cleaning up and aid, if possible, the work of the city, and between the two a marvelous change can be enacted within a short space of time.

It is all right to talk of raising an army of a half million or a million men and placing them under arms, but where are the arms, and better still, where are the men? When out of a muster roll of sixty-eight, but thirty-five members of a local company turn out for drill by a regular army officer, after special efforts have been made, the question is asked, where does the trouble lie with volunteer service and the answer is short and direct—in the officers. Under the national government reorganizes from the top down, a volunteer army will be a farce, just as it was in Ninety Eight.

The more we hear of Mexico the less we wonder that a revolution exists. Perhaps Villa may be dangerous, wounded and perhaps he is not, but just the same the revolution continues as though he was in command. It does not take much to stir up a revolution south of the Rio Grande, and the advent of a lot of fugitives who have left the United States, is keeping the pot boiling.

Potatoes, beans, corn, barley and rye, with plenty of fat hogs, good beef cattle and a liberal supply of fowls will make a banner crop for any one farm to produce this year. One farmer announces he has twenty-six sows with litters and twenty cows about to come in. Figure out the profits in beef and pork this one farm will produce.

The United States will have to step lively if it is going to have any part in the settlement of this European problem. The chip has been knocked off Uncle Sam's shoulder, but some way or other he does not seem to find out where his boots are hid or why his old flintlock will not work as good as a centimeter gun of today.

Watch the names of the assemblymen day by day who seek to put clogs in the wheels of law enactment by silly amendments or stiller bills. Then trace their career backwards and find out who is paying them their bonus for going to Madison each winter. There is a "nigger in the wood pile" somewhere.

Uncle Sam may be doing a lot of preparation behind closed doors, but just the same a little work in the open would convince some European powers that the old gentleman meant business after all. Playing with the jig-saw is somewhat dangerous sport when you come right down to it.

Janesville has a factory that can use many thousand more pounds of milk daily than it is receiving, and will pay a good price for it. This should be an impetus to farmers to become dairymen and increase their profits, and at the same time build up the food supply of Rock county.

President Taft may have been defeated five years ago this fall, but just the same he is one of the greatest men who have sat in the presidential chair for many decades and there are a lot of people right now who wish Taft or Hughes were down in Washington sitting on the hill.

"Well," says an exchange, "he kept us out of war for a long time." True, and we are not yet in war, but soon.

The Daily Novelette

MUSTARD ON SOME.

Simon Simons, honorary president of the Economical Sports, was hungry. He used the usual luck of drunken men and tightwads, a way out of the difficulty presented itself almost immediately. Simon Simons crossed Elgin Street and addressed a red-faced fat man.

"Pardon me," he began, "but am I not addressing Phoenix Waldo, the town's richest and most untiring eater?"

"I—I mean, you are," replied Phoenix Waldo.

"Well then, sir, I challenge you. I may be thin, but I can eat circles around you. I challenge you immediately to a sandwich eating contest."

"I'll take you up," mean I'll take you down for your presumptuousness," cried the champion eater at once. And he led the way to Hamburg's famous sandwichery, where he ordered seventy-five sandwiches to be stacked on the counter.

"Begin!" he cried, and forthwith consumed, in the space of twenty-two minutes, six elk liver sandwiches, nine ox tail sandwiches, eleven frog ankle sandwiches, and fourteen calabash sandwiches. Then he stole a quick glance at Simon Simons' side of the stack.

"You've only eaten four!" exclaimed. "You've only eaten four!"

Simon Simons rose with a gracious smile and held out his hand.

"Never shall it be said that I am a man who doesn't know when he is beaten," he said, and walked out, leaving Phoenix Waldo to settle up.

ELKHORN

Elkhorn, March 26.—Ex-Senator Teasdale of Iowa, made a telling speech in behalf of the dry campaign. He made it plain that Elkhorn was receiving only six cents for every dollar spent here for alcoholic drinks and much more than that was expended in caring for the physical and mental wrecks produced by the liquor traffic. Next Sunday night Elkhorn men will speak.

Harry Dunbar and Leslie Foster, returned from Ohio, where they have been attending a short horse sale.

C. W. Thompson of the Birch and Thompson Hereford farm, spent the week end at South St. Paul at a Hereford sale. He reports prices high.

Wheeler, and Miss Mary B. Cobb attended the fourth annual convention of the county Sunday school association which was held at Darien the last of the week.

A. M. Lanyon, the contractor who put in the sewer system of Elkhorn and Whitewater, again in our midst, after a winter spent in Long Beach, Cal.

CAPT. WIARD GIVES A SCATHING ATTACK ON LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Detective and Sociologist Begins Week's Campaign in Janesville

A terrible arraignment of the liquor business, which he said was responsible for the greater share of the crime and disease of the county, was given by Captain Wiard at his address at the rink on Monday evening. Mr. Wiard has been a detective and investigator of crime and a sociologist and from his long experience with criminals he has become convinced of the responsibility of liquor for that condition, that he is devoting his whole time and attention to letting the facts be known.

Mr. Wiard, a prominent lecturer, on known, the Chatauqua platform he has carried his message to thousands of people all over the country. From his wide experience well qualified to know the facts whereof he speaks, and from his personal contact with these people, he has many stories of evil, bad and good influences, and perhaps a humorous suggestion to lighten the gloom of the tale. Names and addresses are given, so that people may verify the facts.

"The Perils of the Race" was the subject of the lecture last evening and the speaker drew attention to the law of eugenics and to the necessity of the same care in the human family, as in that of the animal kingdom in regard to improving the species. He dwelt upon the importance of freedom from disease and of no taint of alcoholism as a requisite of the marriage tie.

He was fully convinced that the alcohol habit so vitiated the system that the children born of such a union were enfeebled, liable to disease and to some extent morose and evil. Children were given showing with scientific accuracy, the life stories of many families, where such marriages resulted in a continuously progressing ratio of degenerates, feeble minded children, alcoholics, criminals and the insane.

In contrast to these conditions pictures were shown of the great improvement of the animal race by proper care and selection. The beautiful horses, the fine type of cows and sheep and the lovely varieties of flowers given to the world by the scientists and protected by the careful laws of the state, led to the showing of the picture of a forlorn little girl evidently an inhabitant of the slums, who was saying to the makers of the country, "I wish I were a hog."

The ever increasing expense to which the country is subjected in caring for the subjects noted, was illustrated by over 30 colored slides given variety to the subject. It was entirely free and a good sized audience was present. The Bower and City Band played on the street and gave several selections to open the program.

Capt. Wiard will be in Janesville all this week and give an illustrated lecture on every evening at the rink. He is not an idealist, not an emotionalist, but from his extensive professional experience he has an appalling array of hard cold facts, which would convince the most skeptical of the truth of his assertions, and he has thousands of slides, many of them from photographs taken by himself to illustrate his claims. He is a fine speaker and very much in earnest on the subjects presented during his lecture, and it is hoped that every tax payer and citizen will get out and listen to what he has to say at some time during the week.

Community Meeting. The community meeting yesterday was held at the home of Mrs. T. Gregg on Prospect avenue. With a good attendance, Mrs. Wiard was the speaker of the afternoon and had for her topic, "The Conservation of Youth." She dwelt particularly on the importance of giving a right start to youthful ideals, of the fact that in playing a game of marbles "for keeps" the first impulse toward a gambling habit might be started and the ideals high in youthful minds.

She spoke of the indifference that prevailed in public life in regard to protecting the children from the dangers of the liquor temptation, and related a personal incident which happened at one of their Chatauqua meetings. The tent, where the address had been given was on the shores of a lake and the speaker had been describing a vivid vision which had come to her, wherein an audience was seen rushing to the rescue of a drowning child, when the same thing actually occurred.

The cry was raised that a child had fallen into the lake and a frantic rush was made by everyone to assist in its rescue. Such would be the attitude of the community, the speaker asserted, if they realized the danger to the younger generation through the liquor traffic.

Mrs. Wiard is a pleasing speaker and thoroughly familiar with every phase of her subject. She and her husband make their headquarters in Chicago, but their summer home is located at Winona Lake, Indiana.

At yesterday's meeting a duet was given, "The Prohibition Tide Rolls On," by Mrs. Horwood and Mrs. O. Wash, and those present sang the rally song, "We Are Out for Prohibition."

CITY WILL RECEIVE BIDS FOR STREET OIL

Five Firms Want to Furnish Local Contract—Plan to Use Heavier Quality This Season.

Bids on oil for Janesville streets for the 1917 season were to be opened by the city commission at the city hall at four o'clock. Janesville is in the market for 100,000 gallons, twenty per cent more or less, this year. Approximately a cent per gallon advance in the price paid in 1916 will have to be paid this year, eight cents being the price last season.

Three bids and the presentation of five samples had been received at noon and it was expected that the other two companies which had not offered bids would have representatives present in person.

A slightly heavier oil will be purchased this year, a sort of asphalt or Trinidad. It is of a quality similar to that used by Rock and Green counties last year, the two joints entering in a contract for the surfacing as a financial proposition.

JOHNSTOWN

Johnstown, March 26.—Mrs. Eunice Pierce and daughter, Marjorie, were called home from Los Angeles, California, where they had gone for the winter, by the serious illness of the former's mother, Grandmother Peterson.

Mr. Alvin Peterson, employed at the McFarlane home the coming year. The electors of the town of Johnstown held their annual caucus at the town hall Saturday at 2:00 p. m. for the nomination of town officers.

Messrs. Peterson and Jones delivered their crop of tobacco Tuesday at Milton Junction. A. S. will meet with Mrs. Zimmerman April 12. All are welcome. Mrs. Henry Lorkie and Lillian of Harmony, were calling on old neighbors and friends on Sunday.

The friends of Dan Hanson and Frank Clark will be glad to learn they are slowly improving from their late illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Pliny Morse are the proud parents of a baby son, born March 23.

Usher and Cunningham delivered horses at Avalon on Wednesday. Wackerly's family are all sick with the grippe.

Sunday was "go to church" Sunday and a very large attendance, which was a pleasure to the pastor, came from Milton.

JAPANESE CHILDREN DON'T THINK MUCH OF THE U. S. A.

Tokio, March 27.—A primary school teacher asked his class here what is the strongest nation in the world. Of course they all said Japan. He asked them what was the second strongest. Eighty percent of them said Germany. Some said Great Britain, others Russia. The United States didn't figure in the discussion.

California Hotel Company

First Mortgage 6% Serial Bonds

(Safeguarded Under the Straus Plan)

Secured by

Huntington, Green and Maryland Hotels

Pasadena, Cal.

TAX EXEMPT IN CALIFORNIA

Dated March 15th, 1917. Interest Coupons due May 1st and Nov. 1st. Principal and Interest Payable at the office of S. W. Straus & Co., Inc. Denominations $5,000, $1,000 and $500. Trustee, Mr. S. W. Straus.

SECURITY—The land and buildings comprising the Huntington, Green and Maryland Hotels, Pasadena, California. These three hotels are owned and operated by the California Hotel Co., and form one of the most firmly established, most popular, and most profitable hotel properties in the United States, known all over the country.

LOCATION—Pasadena is one of the nation's garden spots and mecca for thousands of visitors to California each year, assuring constant patronage of these hotels.

VALUATION—Our valuation of the property, based on appraisals by several banks and independent real estate experts, is $4,287,000, more than double the amount of the bonds.

EARNINGS—Based on past profits, we estimate the annual net earnings of the three hotels on a conservative basis at $445,000, nearly four times the greatest annual interest charge.

SERIAL MATURITIES—The bonds mature in annual serial installments in one to ten years.

MONTHLY PAYMENTS—The issuing corporation must deposit each month one-twelfth of the current year's interest charge, to pay the semi-annual coupons. On February, March and April 1st, it must deposit one-third of the year's serial principal requirement. Thus a sinking fund is maintained to assure prompt payment of both principal and interest.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX—The mortgagor covenants to pay the normal federal income tax.

We offer these bonds with our unqualified recommendation as a thoroughly safeguarded investment for the funds of institutions and individuals. Orders may be telegraphed or cabled at our expense.

THEY WANT A THOUSAND BOYS FOR A THOUSAND JOBS IN CHICAGO APRIL 10.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Chicago, March 27.—"A thousand boys for a thousand jobs" is the slogan of the Boys' Brotherhood, a public which arranges today for a city-wide Boys' Job Day a week from Saturday.

Mayor William Hale Thompson has issued a proclamation at the boys' request urging motorists to employ the boys to the end that they become at least partly self supporting; and to the further end that they keep off the streets and out of trouble.

Last year several thousand boys secured jobs on Boys' Job Day; 1,000 ought to this year.

MRS. FISKE IN "ERSTWHILE SUSAN" AT MYERS THEATRE TONIGHT—A TREAT FOR JANESVILLE THEATRE-GOERS.

News Notes from Movieland

—BY DAISY DEAN—

Irene Howley, who is featured with Frank Currier in "Her Father's Keeper," has appeared in many well-known productions.

Miss Howley made her screen debut as a member of the old Biograph stock company later on filling engagements with Reliance, Famous Players and Metro. Some of the better-known features in which she has won wide popularity have been "The Moth and the Flame," "The Heart of Jennifer," "The Wages of Sin," "The Fatal Wedding," and "The Road to Yesterday." She was recently co-starred with William Nigh in "Life's Shadows," with Lionel Barrymore in "A Yellow Streak" and "His Father's Son," and was also headlined with Ralph Herz in "The Purple Lady."

Although she is by no means prosaic, Irene Howley acknowledges Brooklyn her birthplace, and seems proud of the fact. After graduating from public and private schools in this well-known suburb, she ran away to go on the stage, appearing first in "Havana" as one of the original "Hello Girls" coterie. Later on she created a great vogue in vaudeville as "The Manhattan Girl."

A brunette of distinctly intellectual type, Miss Howley is fitted to create roles in which brains count as well as beauty.

MOVIES TO SOLVE MYSTERY.
The New York district attorney has hit upon a novel scheme by which he hopes to solve the mystery of the disappearance of Ruth Cruger, the Bronx school girl who has been missing some weeks. The attorney has arranged to put the Cruger girl's picture in the movies together with all important information regarding her and the time of her disappearance. The picture is practically every fair-sized city in the country, is expected to lead to her recovery.

"Hidden Children," drama of Colonial times, is coming patriotic release. Robert Chambers wrote the story. It stars May Allison and Harold Lockwood.

Edward Lawrence won prominence as an athlete before he went into the movies. He's Hercules in "Intolerance," and an extra menacing rough in "The Great Secret."

North Dakota is making some progress toward civilization. A bill has been passed by the legislature and has become a law permitting the people of the state to play Sunday ball games, provided no admission is charged to see the game and the game is not played within 500 yards of a church. Preachers in churches, however, will be allowed to take up collection as usual, and paid choir singers may continue to lift their voices in praise of the Jewish martyr who said "the Sabbath was made for man."

Irene Howley.

George M. Cohan is to hesitate in mid-career as a movie star following his appearance in "Broadway Jones," before making more he will wait to see how this one goes.

MRS. FISKE PLAYS AT MYERS TONIGHT

Famous Star in Clever Play Will Be Seen at Local Theatre Tonight
—Should Be Supported.

Too many times the management of the Myers Theatre has brought to this city, for the benefit of the lovers of the drama, high class productions, only to have the players greeted with an unnecessarily poor attendance.

There is no good reason why this condition should prevail. Southern Wisconsin people should be proud of the fact that they have here a really progressive enough and a management up-to-date theatre and a management, the very cream of the theatrical productions of the season.

Two recent notable examples of the lack of attendance and appreciation on the part of the public regarding high grade productions, was noted at the presentation of "Daddy Long Legs," a charming little comedy which was thoroughly enjoyable and the great, massive scenic and dramatic production of "The Garden of Allah." Both attractions played at a loss to the producers and the local management, which fact offers but little encouragement for a continuance of the better class policy.

Tonight Mrs. Fiske, by special arrangement with Harrison Grey Fiske, will be seen in what has been with termed "the comedy with the message of kindness and gaiety." There is no need to go here into the wonderful ability of Mrs. Fiske, everyone knows that. The only suggestion that is offered is that sufficient support be given her to make the Janesville engagement a success from an artistic point of view as well as that of the box office.

Pittsburgh and Brooklyn having done their fussing about the transfer of First Baseman Walter Adams, the situation now resolves itself into a case where Bill Hinchman will groom himself to play first base for Pittsburgh, after Mr. Adams has had his fling at it.

President Tener of the National League has not committed himself on the suggestions of the new owners of the St. Louis club to give out a baseball pass, good for a boy under sixteen years old, with each share of stock in the club. The suggestion is so radical that it is not likely that the other club owners will agree to it, as it would establish a bad precedent.

GRANDMOTHER'S BOTANIC MEDICINE.

In every home home the botanic recipes of our grandmothers for the treatment of disease were wonderfully dependable. Every fall she gathered her various herbs: thoroughwort, rambling sage, pennyroyal, wormwood, rue, etc. It is interesting to note that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful remedy for female ailments, was originally prepared at her home use from one of these botanic recipes, and the demand for this famous medicine has grown until over 50,000,000 pounds of roots and herbs are used annually in its preparation. It will well repay any woman who suffers from female ills to give this famous medicine a trial.—Advertisement.

Sure Way to Get Rid Of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

My morning, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

Prepare This for a Bad Cough—It's Fine

Chapman and Bosley Made, but Does the Work Quickly.

The finest cough syrup that money can buy—tasting only about one-fifth as sweet as ready-made preparations—can easily be made up at home. The way is to take hold and conquer throat troubles, coughs, croup and chest colds will really make you enthusiastic about it.

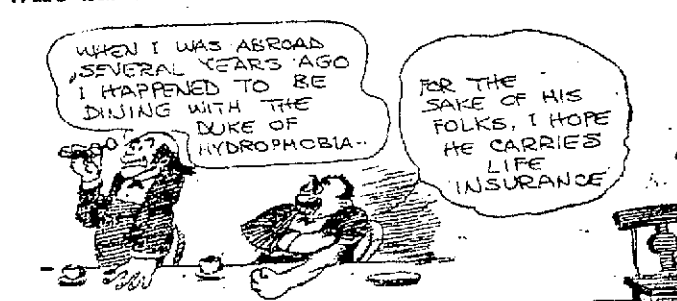

Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pink 50 cents worth. Mix this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Shake thoroughly and it is ready for use. The total cost is about 75 cents and gives you a full pint—a family supply—of a most effective, pleasant tasting remedy. It keeps perfectly.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the inflamed or sore throat, breaks the hoarse, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough will disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, whooping cough and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with genuine cod liver oil and known the world over for its prompt healing effect on the throat membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pink" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Place Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

A MAN DOESN'T HAVE TO LEAVE HOME TO PROVE HE IS A FIGHTER.

NO, YOU FATHER, NOT 73333—I WANT 33733—WHAT'S THAT? ALL RIGHT, START SOMETHING!!!!

THE TELEPHONE HAS CONTRIBUTED ITS SHARE TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE FIGHTING SPIRIT.

THIS MAN IS ALL READY TO SHOULDER A GUN.

YOU'RE READY FOR ANYTHING AFTER AN AUTOMOBILE RUNS OVER YOUR TOES.

GOOD NIGHT!
